

Level 2 - Take officiating knowledge to the next level

Level 2 officials will be expected to understand how to apply the rules, learn how to present and control a match, develop good communication skills and understand the roles of the referee and marker. The course features online modular course work, periodic online testing and appraisals.

Completing this online and practical course enables refereeing at appropriate competitions as determined by the relevant Member Nation.

Requirements:

1. Officials must submit an activity log showing at least 20 matches that have been refereed over an annual period. At least 5 matches must include players of the standard agreed by the Member Nation
2. Will have completed all appropriate Continuous Professional Development (CPD) modules – including quarterly online testing from the WSO website
3. Must submit at least 2 self-reflection feedback forms per review period (2 years)
4. Will receive a minimum of 2 appraisals annually from 2 different appraisers which will be upload onto the WSO database
5. Will receive a review every 2 years from the Member Nation review panel. The referee feedback form will be used in this process
6. Must be a WSO / Member Nation member
7. Must hold a current WSO Level 1 certificate

Note: officials may be asked to complete additional mandatory accreditation by their member nation (e.g. child welfare)

Level 2 accreditation is valid for 2 years, after which the official must repeat the modular training online and meet the requirements of the practical test. The Level 2 registration fee is annual at $25.

Certification of an official is the responsibility of each Member Nation, who must encourage prospective officials to complete the WSO Level 2 requirements.
